16. "Enter at Your Own Risk!"

Sally decided to stop at a local all night market, owned by Welcome Corporation, to pick up some items on her way home from visiting some friends. Sally was brutally mugged by two men in the stores spacious dimmly-lighted parking lot as she returned to her car. Her injuries were numerous and some were quite severe. In the two years prior to this assault, eleven other muggings occurred in the parking area and had been reported to the store as well as the police. Welcome Corporation hired a security guard, but he was inside the store using a restroom when Sally was attacked. Sally is suing Welcome Corporation for failure to provide adequate protection and security in the parking lot area.

How do you think the case should have been decided?
