PROBLEM THIRTY-TWO: Shades Of The Past. The year was 1940. A young man and woman from different backgrounds on their first date entered a restaurant in Alabama for dinner. The waiter promptly told them that they could not be served, and would have to leave. After some discussion, they decided to go to the young man's apartment where he would cook the dinner meal. Arriving at the house, the young girl opened the closet to hang up her coat and was immediately startled and shocked at something white that she saw hanging in the closet. She quickly put on her coat and ran out of the house and never dated the young man again. What did she discover that caused her to run away?
