PROBLEM THIRTY-ONE: The Bicycles: One hot summer afternoon the local police department received a call from one of the cities most popular cocktail lounges. It seems a man had been playing pool and some other games with some passing bicyclists who had stopped for a couple of beers. The deceased man got into an argument with them over the outcome of a game. The man was later found dead outside the lounge and was surrounded by fifty-three bicycles. After investigating the scene, police arrested one of the men involved in playing a game with the deceased man. What did the bicycles have to do with the death of this man?
