54. The Gun and the X-ray Machine

Jackie wanted to bring her revolver with her to New Jersey on a business trip because she was carrying $100,000 in diamonds to sell at an auction. She had a City of Chicago firearms permit (license) to carry the revolver concealed when transporting expensive jewelry. Jackie arrived at Chicago O'Hare International Airport at 4:00 pm and had a flight departing at 4:30 pm. The check-in counter told her that it was too late to check in her carry-on bag that contained her Smith and Wesson 38 caliber revolver. The airline agent at the check in counter told her to hurry in order to make it to Gate 13 for the flight to New Jersey. As Jackie went through the x-ray machine prior to the gated areas, the metal detector alarm sounded and the TSA Agent discovered the gun in her baggage. She was arrested by airport police and charged with attempting to board an aircraft with a firearm.
