ANALYSIS PROBLEM # 5

Name: _____ Period: _____ Row: _____ Date: _____

PROBLEM FIVE: Guilty Verdict: The jury debated the facts, and after a great deal of deliberation, came in with a verdict of not guilty. Shortly after this District State Court decision, the accused laughed and ridiculed the court in making a wrong decision-admitting his guilt to the felony he had been tried for. He was soon back in court again and found guilty in a second trial. How could that place if he claimed his protection against double jeopardy protection of the 5th Amendment to the United States Constitution?
